Your Estimated Federal Student Aid

Federal Pell Grant

A Federal Pell Grant is awarded to undergraduate students who have financial need and who have not earned a degree or are in a teacher certification program. Federal Pell Grants don't need to be repaid.

Up to $7,395

Federal Direct Loans

A federal direct loan is money lent by the government to you that you must repay with interest.

Up to $7,500

Federal Work-Study

Federal Work-Study is a way for students to earn money to pay for school through part-time jobs on or off campus.

You May Be Eligible

Amounts shown here are only estimates of federal student aid based on full-time enrollment and the average cost of attendance. Your school will determine how much student aid to offer you, which may include additional aid from your school or state.

Next Steps

1 Correct any errors on your FAFSA® form

Review your FAFSA form responses carefully and make sure all the information you provided is correct. To correct errors or add additional schools, you'll need to submit a FAFSA correction.

If you need to report significant changes in your family or financial situation, contact your college's or career school's financial aid office.

- If you need additional help with your FAFSA Submission Summary, contact your college's or career school's financial aid office or select "Visit Help Center" from the FAFSA home page. If your contact information changes, update your information in your Account Settings. Then, select "Make Corrections" to update the information on your FAFSA form.
- This FAFSA Submission Summary was updated because we processed a change to your information based on information reported to us by another federal agency or because of a processing system change. Review your FAFSA Submission Summary to see what effect, if any, this change has had on your form. If you have questions, call the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-433-3243.

2 Make sure your schools have everything they need

The financial aid staff at your school may contact you to resolve any issues related to information reported on your FAFSA form.

You can also reach out directly to your school and find out if any additional documentation is required.

3 Look out for aid-related communications from your schools

Once the schools you applied to have processed your FAFSA form, they will send you financial aid offers. These aid offers tell you what aid you can receive at a particular college or career school.

Keep in mind that you don't have to accept all the student aid that is offered, and that your schools may offer amounts that differ from your federal student aid estimates.

For Your Awareness

- VA Education and Training Benefits help veterans, service members, and their family members with needs like paying college tuition or finding the right school.
- Based on the information we have on record for you, your Student Aid Index (SAI) is 0. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your college's or career school's financial aid office will use your SAI to determine your eligibility for other types of grants, scholarships, work-study funds, and loans.

Understand Your Tax Benefits

Did you know that the IRS provides tax benefits for education? These tax benefits can be used to get back some of the money you spend on tuition or loan interest, or to maximize your college savings.
