Expected Family Contribution: 0

Based on the information we have on record for you, your Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is 0. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work-study funds, and possible funding from your state and school.

There is a limit to the total amount of Federal Pell Grants that a student may receive, which is the equivalent of six school years. Based on information reported to the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS®) database by the schools you have attended, you have received Federal Pell Grants for the equivalent of between one-half and one school year.

Based on your EFC of 0, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant of up to $6,895 for the 2023–24 school year provided you have not met or exceeded the lifetime limit established for the Federal Pell Grant program.

FAFSA Data

Your FAFSA data reflects the answers you provided on your FAFSA form. Assumed values are marked with an asterisk (*).

What you must do now:

Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.

- Be sure to review the items marked with a h and make any corrections if necessary by selecting "Make Corrections" on the "My FAFSA" page.
- We assumed certain information to calculate your eligibility for federal student aid. We printed the assumption we made and a h for each of these items. If our assumptions are correct, don't change them. If they are incorrect, you need to make the necessary corrections by selecting "Make Corrections" on the "My FAFSA" page.
- We assumed you didn't file and won't file a 2021 income tax return (Item 29). Review this item.
- The number you have reported for your parents' number of family members is significantly different than the number you reported on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) form last year. Review Item 69 and make a correction if necessary by selecting "Make Corrections" on the "My FAFSA" page.
- If you need to make corrections to your information, select "Make Corrections" on the "My FAFSA" page using your account username and password (FSA ID). If you need additional help with your Student Aid Report (SAR), contact your school's financial aid office or select the "Get FAFSA help" link from the FAFSA home page. If your mailing address or email address changes, you can make the correction online.
